MINISTRY OF LABOUR AND EMPLOYMENT

Employees' State Insurance Corporation

NOTIFICATION

New Delhi, the 6th November 1957

No. INS II(10)-01/57—It is notified for general information that the Corporation passed the following resolution at its meeting held on the 17th December 1955:

"Under the powers vested in it under Section 99 of the Employees' State Insurance Act, 1948, and in supersession of the Resolution passed on the subject of extended cash benefit under Item No. 7(iii) of the Agenda at its meeting held on the 15th October 1954, the Corporation hereby resolves that, with effect from such date as the Chairman of the Corporation may fix, the sickness benefit granted under the Employees' State Insurance Act, 1948, shall be extended for persons suffering from tuberculosis in the manner indicated below:—

1. To be entitled to the extended sickness benefit, an insured person shall have been, at the beginning of the spell of sickness in which tuberculosis is diagnosed, in continuous employment for a period of two years or more in a factory or establishment to which the benefit provisions of the Act apply.

Note.—Employment shall be held to be continuous—

- (a) for periods preceding the Appointed Day, if the person was in continuous service as defined in the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947;
  - (b) for periods after the Appointed Day, if contributions paid by him in each of the respective completed contribution periods entitle him to sickness benefit in the corresponding benefit period.
2. The extended sickness benefit shall be granted only if the insured person has exhausted under the second proviso to Section 49 the sickness benefit due to him.
  3. The extended sickness benefit shall be limited to a period of 18 weeks following, whether immediately or after an interval, the last day for which sickness benefit at the full rate was due under the Act.
  4. Subject to the condition that the rate of extended sickness benefit shall not exceed the full rate of sickness benefit, the rate of cash benefit during the aforesaid period shall be at -/12/- a day or at half (such half being rounded, where there is a fraction of an anna, to the next higher anna) the rate of sickness benefit applicable when such benefit was last payable under the Act, whichever is higher.
  5. The extended sickness benefit shall be payable if the sickness due to tuberculosis is duly certified in accordance with the Act and the Regulations.
  6. Where an insured person, during any period for which he is entitled to extended sickness benefit under this resolution, again becomes entitled to sickness benefit at the full rate, he shall be entitled for the duration of such period either to receive the extended sickness benefit, or the sickness benefit at the full rate whichever he chooses provided that, if the insured person chooses to receive sickness benefit at the full rate during this period, the total duration of extended benefit shall not thereby be extended.
  7. An insured person shall be entitled to receive extended sickness benefit only once for any spell of tuberculosis provided that if the insured person again qualifies for the extended benefit, it shall again be admissible for any further spell of tuberculosis which follows the date of recovery shown in the final certificate in respect of the previous spell after an interval of not less than 24 months".

In pursuance of the above Resolution the Chairman of the Corporation fixed 1st June 1956 as the date with effect from which extended cash benefit became payable to insured persons concerned.
